

We are pleased to announce that effective September 1, 2011 Quantum Insurance Partners, Inc. located in Nashville, TN will merge with Dixon Wells, Inc.

The combination of Dixon Wells' industry experience with Quantum's strong industry relationships will continue to broaden the portfolio of life insurance products, enhanced technology, and exemplary customer service Dixon Wells offers our valued clients. The merger will leverage the core strengths of both organizations and will significantly increase our market exposure.

Quantum Insurance Partners, Inc. will use Dixon Wells' existing brand recognition acquiring their name, logo, email domain and website <http://www.dixonwells.com>. The phone numbers and office address for the Nashville office will remain the same. The merger between both companies is expected to be seamless and you will continue to receive the same high quality of service, which you have come to expect. We are excited about the merger and believe this positive change will position us for the future.

If you should have any questions about the merger between Quantum Insurance Partners, Inc. and Dixon Wells, Inc., please do not hesitate to contact us.
